

HELP US SEND KAT & KELLY MONTENERO TO THE AMERICAN MUSIC AWARDS!

About a month ago, Kelly and Kat entered a singing contest online. They submitted a clip of their harmonized rendition of "Let it Go" from Disney's Frozen for a campaign sponsored by both Disney and Kohl's. A few weeks later, they received a call saying that the girls had been chosen from thousands of entries as TOP TEN FINALISTS! The voting has opened in an American Idol style contest, where people are encouraged to visit www.disney.com/frozenfriday to vote for their favorite performance.

The voting will remain open and continue throughout part of The American Music Awards, airing Sunday, November 23rd from 8-11pm on ABC, where the finalists will be featured and the winners with the most votes will be announced on air and perform in a commercial.

We are encouraging everyone we know to go to www.disney.com/frozenfriday to vote for them and to share, share, share to get the word out there! You can vote once a day, every day from now until 11/23 at 9:30pm.

Thank you so much ~ We appreciate everyone's help!
